PROJECTS

Sidcup Family Clone

🌐 <https://aditi173ras.github.io/Sidcup-Golf-Project/>

I created a beginner-level replica of the Sidcup Family Website using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, GSAP, and ScrollTrigger. This project demonstrates my proficiency in creating visually appealing web pages with seamless animations and interactive features. The experience deepened my understanding of modern web development techniques and tools.

Bent Lindberg Portfolio Clone

🌐 <https://lindberg-portfolio-by-aditi-rastogi.netlify.app/>

I utilized my frontend skills to create a replica of Bent Lindberg's portfolio as a project. This undertaking showcases my ability to mimic the design and layout, demonstrating proficiency in implementing frontend development techniques to recreate a visually appealing and functional portfolio.

IMDEVELOPER Clone

🌐 <https://imdeveloper-aditirastogi.netlify.app/>

I developed the IMDEVELOPER website as I learned HTML and CSS for frontend development. It was part of my learning process to enhance my skills in building web pages.
